Dear Parents/Carers,

It is with a great deal of regret that I write to you, returning your deposit, to cancel the Music tour to Edinburgh.

Unfortunately, the tour cannot now take place as, despite lots of hard work on my part, we are short of numbers. We needed 35 students to make the trip viable and we only have 26.

I am, needless to say, extremely sorry for any inconvenience or upset this may have caused you or your children and I hope to look at running a tour in 2011. I think that a combination of factors has affected the take-up for this trip, including finance in the current climate, as well as the fact that many musicians have already booked onto expensive trips run by other departments.

Next year I hope to look at an alternative visit, which is planned even further in advance. The department also hopes to run other visits and workshops in 2010.

I sincerely hope that this does not affect your child's engagement in music at Prince Henry's.

Thank you for your understanding,

Mrs. L. Greenwood
(Curriculum Leader – Music).
