

Welcome to our

New Year 7 Parents

SEND Information

Ensuring your child feels safe, valued and happy
Supporting your child to be confident and equipped to succeed in the future

Prince Henry's Grammar School
COLLABORATIVE LEARNING TRUST

Meet the team

Roz Hunter
SENCo

Ivola Doumbay
Learning Mentor (Dyslexia)

Gemma Owens
Inclusion officer

Alice Dale
Learning Mentor (SEMH)

Jess Glaister
Teaching Assistant

Rachel Crooks
Teaching Assistant

Marion Miller
Teaching Assistant

Hayley Mower
Teaching Assistant

Tracy Moakes
Teaching Assistant

Ethan Thompson
Teaching Assistant

Scott Bush
Teaching Assistant

Alice Winter
Teaching Assistant

Graeme Whitaker
HLTA maths

Simon Jackson:
Deputy Head Teacher,
Quality of Education

Enza Priestley
HLTA English and literacy

Our vision

Supporting students with SEN is our top school priority for 2023-24.

Respect		Flourish		Achieve
HONESTY	KINDNESS	CONFIDENCE	INDEPENDENCE	AMBITION	RESILIENCE

Latest developments

- Whole school teaching and learning focus on processing.
- Our NET centre is being refurbished.
- 2 new learning mentors with specialisms.
- Single point of contact via send@princehenrys.co.uk

What To Expect From Us

- Quality first teaching
- Clear communication
- Tiered support

How will teachers know about my child's needs?

Information on Arbor

Pupil Centred Passport (PCP)

Weekly SEND Updates

September Training day SEND session

Inclusion meetings

Communication lines

Liaison with pastoral, attendance, well-being team

SEND Faculty Lead

If you need anything in the meantime

send@princehenrys.co.uk