A BRIEF HISTORY OF PRINCE HENRY'S

- In 1603 Thomas Cave left £250 pounds to people of Otley to form a school…provided the people of Otley matched this amount.

- They did, and in 1608 the Royal Charter was signed to form a school – Prince Henry's.

- Lessons began in 1611 in temporary accommodation.

- In 1614 the school opened on a new site in Manor Square

- In 1874 the school closed and remained closed for 44 years.

PRINCE HENRY'S GRAMMAR SCHOOL

- The official re-opening of Prince Henry's Grammar School occurred on Wednesday 18th September 1918.

- The first headteacher of the reopened school was Walter Robinson

- The school was initially located in the 'Mechanics Institute' and had just 117 students

- In 1927 the school moved into a new building (the current site) on Farnley Lane.
