

Bridging work - French A-level

You are now at the stage in your language learning where you bridge the gap between GCSE and A Level. You will need to build on prior learning, expand knowledge in weaker areas and widen your grammatical, lexical and factual knowledge of the French language and culture.

Don't leave these tasks to the last minute. Try to complete ONE TASK per week. Email me if you need an editable copy of this work.

Complete the following information and email to bsv@princehenrys.co.uk

25. The French President at the time of World War 2 was

List below any other miscellaneous information you have about France or French-speaking countries.

Task 2 - Francophonie

On A4 paper or on your iPad, research two francophone countries, put together your findings and include this information. Don't just copy facts from Wikipedia.

- Une carte du pays
- Les langues parlées
- Le régime politique
- La capitale
- Le drapeau
- La population
- Les mets typiques
- Les coutumes et traditions
- Autres faits intéressants

Task 3 - The Gender of French Nouns

An easy way to work out the gender of a noun, is to look at its ending. Find at least 5 examples of nouns for each category. To help you, exceptions to the rule (i.e a noun which has a different gender, are noted).

Typical Masculine Endings

- ment - An exception is 'la jument' (the mare).

- age - Several exceptions include 'une image', 'la plage', 'la nage'. Note that 'le page' is a pageboy, whilst 'la page' is the page of a book or newspaper, etc.

- aire

- é

- eau - The one exception is 'l'eau'.

- in - An exception is 'la fin'.

- isme

- o - An exception is 'la météo'

- ier

- er

- eur - Exceptions include 'la douleur' (the pain) and 'la chaleur' (the heat).

- on - An exception is 'la maison'.

Typical Feminine Endings

- tion

- ence - An exception is 'le silence'.

- ance

- té.

- ade - An exception is 'l'escalade' (climbing).

- ée - Exceptions include 'le lycée' and 'le musée'.

- que - Exceptions include 'le plastique', 'le kiosque' and 'le moustique' (the mosquito).

- ure

- erie

- ère - Exceptions include 'le père' and 'le frère'

- ette - An exception is 'le squelette' (the skeleton).

- rice - An exception is 'le dentifrice' (the toothpaste).

- ssion

- esse

Task 4 – Key verbs & Tenses

FRENCH GCSE TO FRENCH AS LEVEL BRIDGING WORK The transition between GCSE and AS Level French will be easier if you know (and master) some of the basics of French grammar. The best way to achieve this, will be by memorising the verb tables below. All of these verbs are irregular but extremely common and you will need all of them throughout your 2-year A-level course. We cannot emphasise enough on how important it is to master the present, past perfect, imperfect, future and conditional before starting your AS-Level, as you will have to write detailed essays using a variety of tenses.

1 - Learn by heart all of the REGULAR verbs endings below.

REGULAR VERBS ER Verbs e.g Jouer (to play) * In the past perfect tense the verb of avoir (to go) is used to describe something you have done however verbs of motion use the verb of être (to be)

Verb endings - they are the same for all of the regular ER verbs

Pronoun	Present	Perfect Tense	imperfect	Future	Conditional
