

Connecting Ideas

- | | |
|----------------------|----------------------|
| Firstly | Next |
| Secondly | Another thing |
| Finally | However |
| In conclusion | Also |
| In addition | Furthermore |
| Additionally | Moreover |

Sentence Variety

- The cat was black.
- The black cat was eating its food.
- The black cat wandered into the kitchen and ate its food.
- After playing in the garden, the black cat slowly wandered into the kitchen and ate its food.

Homophones

- Their shoes are on their feet.
There are six cars in the car park.
They're always working hard!
- It's quite warm outside.
The park was quiet at midnight.
- Shall we go to the cinema?
It's too expensive!
- Here we are again.
I can't hear you!

Some rules to remember

- A apple or An apple? A car or An car?
A = before a consonant, An = before a vowel.
- Should of or should have?
Should, could, would and might ALWAYS use HAVE

CAPITALS

- Names – James Bond
- Places – Otley
- Titles – Toy Story
- New sentence – It all began...

Paragraphs

- Change in action
- Change in place
- Change in time
- New speaker
- New point

Apostrophes

- Ghost – Letter missing
E.g. I'm, won't, don't, he's
- Grabber – Show possession
E.g. Bob's coat, Jess' bag

Spellings

beginning	interest	a lot
suddenly	happened	excited
thought	awkward	writing
surprise	different	separate

Punctuation

. , ? ! “ ” : ; () ’